NUMBER OF DECLINED AND REJECTED BALLOTS

In accordance with Section 55 of the Municipal Elections Act, as amended, municipalities are required to make available information relating to the number of declined and rejected ballots for both municipal and school board elections.

A rejected ballot includes a ballot that was not supplied, an overvote or an under vote.

A declined ballot means a ballot which is returned to the deputy returning officer and indicates that the elector is declining to vote.

The numbers below reflect the number of declined and rejected ballots for the offices of Municipal Council for the Town of New Tecumseth and includes all School Board Trustees for the Town of New Tecumseth only.
